regarding FSC-POL-01-004
(Policy for the Association of Organizations with FSC)

The signing Organization is associated with the Forest Stewardship Council A.C., Oaxaca, Mexico, or one of its subsidiaries or affiliates (hereinafter: FSC) by being either a member of or having a contractual relationship with FSC. Hereby the signing Organization explicitly states that it has read and understood the "Policy for the Association of Organizations with FSC" as published under www.fsc.org. This policy stipulates FSC's position with regards to unacceptable activities by organizations and individuals which already are or would like to be associated with FSC as well as the mechanism for disassociation.

In light of the above, the Organization explicitly agrees currently and in the future, as long as the relationship with FSC exists, not to be directly or indirectly involved in the following unacceptable activities:

- a) Illegal logging or the trade in illegal wood or forest products;
- b) Violation of traditional and human rights in forestry operations;
- c) Destruction of high conservation values in forestry operations;
- d) Significant conversion of forests to plantations or non-forest use;
- e) Introduction of genetically modified organisms in forestry operations;

In addition, the signing Organization recognizes that the principles established by the International Labor Organization through the 1998 Declaration on Fundamental Principles and Rights at Work (the "Principles") serve to guide governments in the protection of the basic rights of workers without defining a uniform path for every nation to follow. Based upon these Principles, and consistent with applicable national law, rights, regulations, and administrative/judicial rules and procedures, the signing Organization shall respect:

- a) Freedom of association and the effective recognition of the right to collective bargaining;
- b) The elimination of all forms of forced or compulsory labor;
- c) The effective abolition of child labor; and
- d) The elimination of discrimination in respect of employment and occupation.

Fundamental labor rights policy statement

The company ALPI S.p.A. recognizes the principles established by the International Labour Organization through the Declaration on Fundamental Principles and Rights at Work of 1998. These principles indicate the guidelines for protection of the fundamental rights of workers. On the basis of these principles and in compliance with European and national standards, the company makes a commitment to:

a) Abolish child labor and therefore to:

- not employ workers younger than the minimum age specified by law or by national or local regulations;
- not employ persons under the age of 18 years in dangerous or heavy labor; persons under the age of 18 can be present inside the company for purposes of training, in compliance with approved national regulations and laws;
- prohibit all forms of child labor in suppliers or connected organizations.

b) Eliminate any form of forced or compulsory labor, and therefore to:

- abolish all forms of forced labor;
- engage only in voluntary working relations based on mutual consent;
- not implement measures of forced labor relations;
- ensure defense of the worker in case of disagreements regarding labor practices.

c) Avoid any form of discrimination, and thus ensure:

- that there are no discriminations regarding access to opportunities for work or professional activity based on gender, face, language, religion, political views, union participation, personal and social conditions;
- equality of economic and regulatory treatment for equal jobs or professional activities, on the basis of the company's own ethical norms, national laws and individual and collective contracts.

d) Guarantee to workers the freedom to participate in labor unions and the freedom of the latter to formulate their own statutes and rules with the aim of ensuring effective rights of collective bargaining; therefore the company pledges to guarantee for workers:

- freedom of organization in unions and enlistment in unions;
- freedom to take part in legal activities related to training, participation and support of a union organization, without discrimination or punishment against workers who have exercised these rights;
- union authorization of representatives of workers and their right to negotiate union agreements;
- application in good faith of the stipulations of valid collective labor contracts.

Quality policy

Since its founding, Alpi has adopted a policy aimed at the manufacturing of products of high technical and qualitative level, finding in the community of Modigliana a welcoming and constructive context. These starting conditions and the company's subsequent entrepreneurial choices made it a world leader in decorative surfaces of reconstituted wood. By creating products with excellent aesthetics and design, and through accurate competitive positioning, Alpi has obtained an extraordinary brand reputation, which still today remains rooted in strong identification with the local region.

Customers have come to expect from Alpi products of high quality and aesthetic perfection; technical support for design application and usage; and attention for ethical and ecological principles.

These requirements are a driving force in the increasingly sharp precision of the manufacturing process, the growing commitment to sustainability, the sourcing of raw material with the least environmental impact, the use of less energy-consuming procedures, and the reduction of waste.

This avenue requires a high consideration of human resources regarding involvement and professional qualifications.

Alpi S.p.A. is committed to fostering a relationship of comprehension, sharing and transparency with the surrounding community, in light of the company's role as an economic and ethical point of reference.

In particular, Alpi pursues:

- respect of all mandatory requirements applicable to its field of business and type of product;
- respect of all norms for the monitoring, traceability and lawfulness of the source of its wood materials;
- respect for the environment by means of reducing carbon dioxide emissions, waste disposal and the consumption of water and energy;
- research and development of products with innovative aesthetic and functional content;
- continuous improvement of factory processes toward increased accuracy and decreased costs for non-quality;
- the constant broadening of the range of products and services, and the development of best practices for their realisation;
- the continuous training of personnel.

ALPI S.p.A. has recognised in the requirements described by UNI EN ISO 9001:2015 for a Quality Management System a suitable tool to guarantee efficient monitoring, measurement and improvement of its industrial processes.

The management at Alpi S.p.A. is committed to substantiating the elements of this Quality Policy by assuming leadership that is coherent with its content, by focusing on customer satisfaction and by continuously improving the Quality Management System.
